Atlas of Macao: 2019 (Atlas of Macao : 2019 = Atlas de Macau : 2019 = Aomen di tu ji : 2019)

Cartography and Cadastre Bureau (Direcção dos Serviços de Cartografia e Cadastro = Di tu hui zhi di ji ju). Macau. Soft Cover. 252 pages. ISBN 9789993785453. In Chinese (Traditional), Portuguese & English. 2019.

"Atlas of Macao - 2019" is edited and published by Cartography and Cadastre Bureau. It introduces the latest city's features of Macao, and initially introduces the "Land boundaries of Macao Special Administrative Region", the "Coastline of Macao Special Administrative Region" and thematic maps under the series "Tracing the changes in Macao with topographic maps"; that is to present Macao's latest survey and mapping results and record the development of the city. As this year marks the 20th anniversary of Macao's handover, the "Atlas of Macao - 2019" specially introduces the thematic series such as boundaries of the administrative division, land boundary and markers between Guangdong and Macao, coastline demarcation, and offers thematic maps under the series "Tracing the changes in Macao with topographic maps", created based on overlaying the topographic maps, to show readers the city development during the past twenty years after the handover. The maps in the 2019 version look more real and user-friendly as they were compiled with overlays of the latest satellite images for readers to have a deeper understanding of Macao's geographical conditions and distribution.
