Catalan Maps and Jewish Books: The Intellectual Profile of Elisha Ben Abraham Cresques 1325-1387.

Brepols, Belgium. 358 Pages. ISBN 9782503585482. In English. 2020.

This book presents a small chapter in the intellectual history of the Jews of Majorca. Its key figure is Elisha ben Abraham Bevenisti Cresques (1325-1387) a cartographer in the service of King Peter IV of Aragon and a scribe and illuminator of Hebrew books. Elisha Cresques' career evolves at a point in time when some of the most fascinating threads of methodological interests relevant to intellectual history meet. He emerges as a hub, so to speak, where mapmaking converged with scribal work, miniature painting with scientific knowledge, and the culture of a minority with that of the majority. How he was able to negotiate his patron's expectations and his own cultural identity and frame them within the political, cultural, and religious discourses of his time is the subject of this book.

21-08-018 | $61.00 | PURCHASEAtlas of West African Fisheries and Artisanal Fishermen - UEMOA Member States: Benin, Burkina Faso, Côte d'Ivoire, Guinea-Bissau, Mali, Niger, Senegal, Togo.IRD Editions/Passages, France. 163 Pages.
ISBN 9782709928403. In French. 2021.

In West Africa, fishing, especially developed on an artisanal scale, is an important activity for many populations of the interior and coastal areas. It provides them jobs and income, while contributing to the food security of countries. However, small-scale fishing is hardly taken into account by the census operations which are periodically conducted by the national statistical services. One of the consequences is that it has difficulty finding its place in development policies. Taking the measure of this situation, the West African Economic and Monetary Union (UEMOA) has launched since 2012 major surveys deployed on the eight countries of this economic zone. This atlas presents most of the indicators obtained from these surveys, either directly or by estimation. It describes the fishing equipment and activities, the fish caught, the product processing chain after capture, not to mention the living conditions of fishermen in their habitat sites. The indicators, presented in the form of graphs, maps and tables, are accompanied by analysis drafted by international experts and experts from the national administrations who designed and carried out these surveys.

21-08-019 | $56.00 | PURCHASECritical Atlas of Guyana.CNRS Editions, France. 331 Pages. ISBN 9782271132130.
In French. 2020.

This atlas is part of a booming intellectual movement: it is intended to be an exercise in critical cartography applied to a given space. The authors, geographers specializing in the discipline, chose Guyana - but their method could be applied to any "terrain" - because it forms a unique space, an unrecognized, rebellious "island" to classical methods of representation (by the immensity of the Amazonian massif, which is difficult to access). A region with strong political and economic stakes, its maps face very different visions and diverging views on history.

21-08-020 | $46.00 | PURCHASEAtlas of Grand Paris: A Changing Metropolis.Autrement, France. 95 Pages. ISBN 9782746755116.
In French. 2020.

With more than 100 maps and documents, this atlas explores changes in the diversity and complexity of the grand city of Paris.

21-08-021 | $48.00 | PURCHASEHistorical Atlas of France.Les Arenes, France. 318 Pages. ISBN 9791037502612.
In French. 2020.

An essential tool for understanding our history. Accessible to all, this atlas is the most comprehensive ever published on the history of France. 375 maps tell all the stages of the history of our country, from its most distant origins to the present day. By drawing on L'Histoire's cartographic collection and with the help of great historians, the authors have been able to produce an atlas that is both exhaustive and at the cutting edge of the latest advances in research.

21-08-022 | $52.00 | PURCHASEThe Untold History of France in 100 Maps.Perrin, France. 236 Pages. ISBN 9782262050696.
In French. 2020.

The history of France mapped, from prehistory to the present day, and told by Jean Sévillia. In 5 parts - origins; the kingdom of France; the French nation; the test of the 20th century; and towards the France of tomorrow. Over 100 previously unpublished and richly detailed maps, including the main sites on the map of the coronavirus pandemic.

21-08-023 | $46.00 | PURCHASEHistorical Atlas of the Middle East.Autrement, France. 96 Pages. ISBN 9782746755079.
In French. 2020.

From Sumer to Daesh, what is the history of what we call the "Middle East"? In Antiquity, the Middle East experienced many cultural revolutions: birth of agriculture, the city, writing ... It is a land of empires and conquerors: Pharaonic Egypt, Persia, arabization and Islamization, crusades in the Middle Ages. The Ottoman Empire then the Western powers left a lasting mark on the region until independence. The second half of the 20th century and the beginning of the 21st century are the time of territorial recompositions and revolutions. With more than 100 maps and documents, this atlas traces the history of one of the cradles of our civilization and highlights the plural realities of the Middle East.

21-08-024 | $56.00 | PURCHASEAtlas of Quimper Cornouaille: Keys, Maps and Data Visions of a Territory That Feeds Your Inspiration.

Locus Solus, France. 256 Pages. ISBN 9782368332757. In French. 2020.

A historical region on the west coast of Brittany with nearly 300,000 inhabitants, characterized by a diversified economy, 300 km of coastline and seven ports unloading a quarter of French fresh fishing. This atlas, very rich in data, maps, plans and photos, will be a real tool of knowledge on the whole Cornouaillais territory for its inhabitants as well as visitors and those curious about the region.

21-08-025 | $48.00 | PURCHASEAtlas of Urban Worlds.

SciencesPo, les presses, France. 148 Pages. ISBN 9782724626100. In French. 2020.

Seven out of ten humans live in cities. Megacities are forming on all continents. Everywhere, buildings are spreading and becoming standardized, rural worlds are disappearing, lifestyles are becoming uniform and, at the same time, inequalities are widening. The generalization of urban areas is warming the planet, destroying biodiversity and making us even more vulnerable to climate change. But cities are also our common good. They are places of wealth production, innovation, cultural creation, solidarity and resilience. They fascinate with their gigantism, their crowds and their innumerable activities, leaving in the shade another reality: the myriad of small and intermediate towns that make up the bulk of today's urban worlds. Those of the so-called developing countries, in particular, whose "low technologies" are far from affecting the future of the planet as much as the globalized metropolises. To explore urban worlds, the authors of this atlas have cleared multiple heterogeneous fields. Using the classic sources of international organizations and city networks, they confronted the range of new possibilities offered by digital technology, multiplied the scales and freed themselves from the usual territorial spatialities. Here is an unpublished cartography of the planet of the city dwellers.

21-08-026 | $38.00 | PURCHASEPermanent Atlas of the European Union.

Lignes de Reperes, France. 180 Pages. ISBN 97910935768. In French. 2021.

The European Union, with its 27 member states and 447 million inhabitants, is the world's leading economic power. This fifth edition of the Atlas of the European Union, updated, is a reference work that presents the Union, its institutions, each of its member states and their overseas territories.

With more than 50 maps, original data sheets and statistics, the atlas offers a unique European picture accessible to as many people as possible. It is an essential tool for knowing and understanding the issues of the 21st century and the challenges of Europe in a world undergoing profound change. Produced by experts from the Robert Schuman Foundation - one of the very first think tanks dedicated to European construction - the book makes it easy to learn about Europe.

21-08-027 | $67.00 | PURCHASESea Charts: From the Middle Ages to the 19th Century.

Heredium, France. 208 Pages. ISBN 9782810430000. In French. 2020.

A motionless journey through time, on the seas and oceans of the whole world, with marvelous maps having crossed the centuries and the storms as a guide: such is the promise of this work with the exceptional iconography. Katherine Parker traces the fabulous history of nautical maps and atlases, from the earliest known copies, at the dawn of the Middle Ages, until the end of the 19th century.

21-08-028 | $76.00 | PURCHASEWorld War II through the Maps: Strategy, Operations, Tactics, Reporting.

Glenat, France. 207 Pages. ISBN 9782344045046. In French. 2020.

In nearly 80 unpublished maps, the story of the conflict told and explained. While World War I saw significant and exceptional growth in the use and production of military cartography, the ensuing global conflict used maps, diagrams, and carried out reconnaissance and systematic recording and processing of geographic and topographic information on an unprecedented scale.

21-08-029 | $33.00 | PURCHASEWild Lands Atlas.

Arthaud, France. 163 Pages. In French. 2019.

Hostile deserts, inaccessible sea shores, forgotten islands, abandoned lands between two borders, contaminated plains and forests, peaks lost in the clouds. This Atlas of wild lands offers us a motionless journey to unknown, perilous or fascinating destinations including evocation invites dreaming or reflection. Aude de Tocqueville takes us to the discovery of thirty-six sanctuaries with landscapes carrying the soul, horizons and rare lights which all still escape the law of men.

21-08-030 | $68.00 | PURCHASEWhy is North at the Top?: "A Brief History of Cartographic Conventions".

Autrement, France. 224 Pages. ISBN 9782746760660. In French. 2021.

Cartography and its conventions are universal: orientation, projections, scale, use of colors or symbols, representation of relief. Standards and nomenclatures have become common, but this has not always been the case! Beautifully illustrated with more than 100 maps from the Middle Ages to the contemporary period, this book tells the story of cartographic conventions. It is also, and above all, the story of a shared language, that of the representation of the world.

21-08-031 | $72.00 | PURCHASEAtlas of the First Colonizations: 15th-Early 19th Century: From Conquistadors to Liberators.

Autrement, France. ISBN 9782746761810. In French. 2021.

This atlas looks back on these four centuries of conquest of the world by Europeans, and the major events associated with them:

- The Valladolid controversy (1550) on the nature, human or not, of the natives.
- From the XVIII th century, the great momentum of the Enlightenment and the debates against slavery.
- The slave trade and slavery, pillars of the development of the colonies.
- The birth of the United States in 1783, the first colony liberated before Haiti's independence, obtained by the slaves themselves.

The 120 maps and documents in this atlas highlight this unique period ushering in the era of globalization.

21-08-035 | $110.00 | PURCHASEThe Coastal Atlas of Ireland.

Cork University Press, Ireland. 984 Pages. ISBN 9781782054511. In English. 2021.

The Coastal Atlas of Ireland is a celebration of Ireland's coastal and marine spaces. Drawing on written contributions from over 100 authors from across the island of Ireland and beyond, the Atlas takes an explicitly all-island approach; though the work has a much wider relevance and potential reader interest. It is organised into six sections, comprising a total of 33 chapters, that take the reader from the distant geological past, by way of the prehistoric era and a focus on the island's physical environments, through time and the human colonisation of Ireland, to the complex cultural and economic landscapes of the near past and the present day.

21-08-036 | $75.00 | PURCHASEAncient Maps and Geographic Maps of Abruzzo.

Menabo, Italy. 196 Pages. ISBN 9788831922265. In Italian. 2019.

A full-bodied volume that illustrates the entire collection of maps and geographical maps of Abruzzo passed under the presses of the printing presses of half of Europe between the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, about seventy testimonies collected by two passionate collectors and cartography scholars. Preceded by "Notes on the origin and development of cartography through the centuries" and by a general presentation of the "Maps and general and particular geographic maps of Abruzzo", the 70 tables are accompanied by an in-depth presentation sheet. Foreword by Franco Farinelli.

21-08-037 | $37.00 | PURCHASEContemporary Italy in 100 maps.

Leg Edizioni S.r.l, Italy. 166 Pages. ISBN 9788861026636. In Italian. 2020.

Describing a country is never easy, even more difficult if it is characterized by enormous differences. A French historian and geographer succeeded in translating into images their double perspective on a country, Italy, which at the beginning of the 21st century is particularly complex from every point of view. Delpirou and Morlane describe a country that oscillates between tradition and modernity, between inertia and brutal ruptures, which struggles to renew its economic model, but which has to deal with new social and territorial divisions. Italy is seen as a territory subject to numerous constraints, at the mercy of natural dangers, crossed by inequalities of development, highlighted since ancient history. The population is faced with new challenges, economic crisis and zero growth, new poverty and massive immigration, while the state faces widespread distrust and government instability that has led to the rise of populism. Great contradictions in a country with a millenary culture, the cradle of European cultural heritage, which seeks to find a place in the global geopolitical landscape. About 130 color maps and documents illustrate this enormous complexity.

21-08-038 | $45.00 | PURCHASENew Historical Atlas of the City of Utrecht: From Roman Border Fortress to National Junction.

Vantilt, Netherlands. ISBN 2000000010656. In Dutch. 2020.

21-08-039 | $58.00 | PURCHASEHistorical Atlas of Zeeland.

Uitgeverij Wbooks, Netherlands. 128 Pages. ISBN 9789462584358. In Dutch. 2021.

More than any other region, the cartography of Zeeland is one of many and far-reaching changes. Much history has disappeared from today's landscape, but luckily we still have the old maps, beautiful examples of craftsmanship from surveyors and mapmakers.

21-08-040 | $48.00 | PURCHASEHistorical Atlas of Breda.

THOTH, Netherlands. ISBN 9789068688337. In Dutch. 2021.

21-08-041 | $67.00 | PURCHASEHistorical Regional Atlas : The True Scale of the Netherlands.

WBOOKS, Netherlands. 224 Pages. ISBN 9789462583887. In Dutch. 2020.

The Historical Region Atlas is looking for the background of our region names. Through old maps and documents, we discover that most have their origins in the Middle Ages and have been around for centuries. That explains why some Dutch people call themselves Waterlander and some people from Brabant call themselves Kempenaar. Why it is extra nice to be a fan of De Graafschap or FC Twente and why there are Clay Frisians and Woud Frisians. And... why no administrative innovator in the Netherlands can ignore our time-honoured regions.

21-08-042 | $105.00 | PURCHASEAtlas of WWII: The Second World War in More than 100 Maps.

Lannoo, Netherlands. 288 Pages. ISBN 9789401464048. In Dutch. 2019.

The war that has killed more than any other in history comes to life in this book through specially crafted maps. They are provided with all the necessary graphs, symbols and legends to accurately reconstruct the developments. From the invasion of Poland to the atomic bombing of Hiroshima, from the Dunkirk evacuation to the Normandy landings. They provide a unique overview at a glance.

Extensive background information makes clear how the conflict has raged around the world and timelines show the chronology of events. Beautiful archive photos, testimonials and portraits of famous leaders complete the story.

21-08-043 | $90.00 | PURCHASE1000 Years of Amsterdam: Spatial History of a Wonderful City.

THOTH, Netherlands. ISBN 9789068685305. In Dutch. 2020.

21-08-044 | $130.00 | PURCHASEMotion in Maps, Maps in Motion: Mapping Stories and Movement through Time.

Amsterdam University Press, Netherlands. 184 Pages. ISBN 9789463721103. In English. 2020.

Motion in Maps, Maps in Motion argues that the mapping of stories, movement, and change should not be understood as an innovation of contemporary cartography, but rather as an important aspect of human cartography with a longer history than might be assumed. The authors in this collection reflect upon the main characteristics and evolutions of story and motion mapping, from the figurative news and history maps that were mass-produced in early modern Europe, through the nineteenth- and twentieth-century flow maps that appeared in various atlases, up to the digital and interactive motion and personalized maps that are created today.

The first hunter-gatherers, who crossed into what would become our familiar islands by the land-bridge, and later followed by more familiar peoples the Celts, Angles, Saxons, Vikings and Normans, who together would create our islands unique history. Each contributed ideas which shaped our lands, languages and thoughts that are at the core of our identities to this day.

21-08-051 | $50.00 | PURCHASEAtlas: A World of Maps from the British Library.

British Library Publishing, United Kingdom. 272 Pages. ISBN 9780712353328. In English. 2020.

From the publication in 1595 of the first "atlas" by the Flemish cartographer Gerhard Mercator, the term has become a universally adopted title for books containing accurate, uniform and evenly spread maps of all or some of the world. This is an atlas with a difference. Few of the maps in this book could reasonably be called "accurate" in the modern sense and could almost certainly not be used to plan a journey. Yet this atlas can help us to travel in a way that regular atlases do not, because by looking at old maps and getting to know their stories we can be transported back to the times in which they were made.

The New Press, United States. 224 Pages.
ISBN 9781620974568. In English. 2021.

Through a rich combination of place-based storytelling, clear explanations of climate science and policy, and beautifully rendered maps that use a unique ink-on-dried-seaweed technique, The Atlas of Disappearing Places depicts twenty locations across the globe, from Shanghai and Antarctica to Houston and the Cook Islands. The authors describe four climate change impacts—changing chemistry, warming waters, strengthening storms, and rising seas—using the metaphor of the ocean as a body to draw parallels between natural systems and human systems.

Apollo Publishers, United States. 272 Pages.
ISBN 9781948062763. In English. 2021.

The story of the exploration and birth of America is told afresh through the unique prism of hand-colored maps and engravings of the period. Before photography and television, it was printed and hand-colored maps that brought home the thrill of undiscovered lands and the possibilities of exploration, while guiding armies on all sides through the Indian Wars and the clashes of the American Revolution. Only by looking through the prism of these maps, can we truly understand how and why America developed the way it did. Mapping America illuminates with scene-setting text and more than 150 color images—from the exotic and fanciful maps of Renaissance explorers to the magnificent maps of the Golden Age and the thrilling battle-maps and charts of the American Revolutionary War, in addition to paintings from the masters of eighteenth century art, scores of photographs, and detailed diagrams. In total, this informative and lushly illustrated volume developed by rare maps collector Neal Asbury, host of "Neal Asbury's Made in America," and National Geographic historian Jean-Pierre Isbouts offers a new and immersive look at the ambition, the struggle, and the glory that attended and defined the exploration and making of America.

The Maps of the Cavalry in the Gettysburg Campaign: An Atlas of Mounted Operations from Brandy Station Through Falling Waters, June 9 – July 14, 1863.

Savas Beatie LLC, United States. 240 Pages. ISBN 9781611214796. In English. 2020.

The Maps of the Cavalry in the Gettysburg Campaign: An Atlas of Mounted Operations from Brandy Station Through Falling Waters, June 9 - July 14, 1863 continues Bradley M. Gottfried's efforts to study and illustrate the major campaigns of the Civil War's Eastern Theater. This is his seventh book in the ongoing Savas Beatie Military Atlas Series.

The Maps of Gettysburg, Gottfried's inaugural and groundbreaking atlas published in 2007, covered only a small portion of the cavalry's actions during the seminal campaign. This book addresses that topic in-depth in a way that no other study has ever achieved.
